Did you read the entire chapter?

1. What counsel did the elders give Rehoboam? Why? (v.1-8). What wise counsel have you received in life?

---

2. What counsel did Rehoboam’s peers give him? Why? (v.8-11). What bad counsel have you received in life?

---

---

3. Why do you think Rehoboam chose the counsel of his peers (v.10-15)? What determines how you make decisions?

---

---

4. Who was most responsible for the breakup of Israel (11:26-39, 12:15-24)? What makes a person, family, or group responsible?

---

---

5. What significant mistakes does Jeroboam make (v.25-33)? What life lessons have you learned from your mistakes?

---

---

Examine

Ask yourself these three questions:

- What actions and attitudes does this chapter identify for me to avoid or embrace?

---

---

- What are the life application takeaways in this chapter?

---

---

- Having read this chapter, what have I learned about God and what is God saying to me?

---
