Psalm 27

Icebreaker Question: What is one thing you will always be grateful for?

1. As you read Psalm 27, what words and phrases stand out to you? Why?

2. What attributes of God does David recall in this Psalm (v.1)? How do these attributes of God relate to David's confidence (v. 2-3)?

3. When David wrote this Psalm, what dangers was he facing? What makes you anxious and fretful?

4. What is David's deepest desire (v. 4, 8)?

a. What distracts you from seeking God? Why?

b. Practically, what does it mean to seek God?

5. How can you follow David's example in Psalm 19 when anxious and fretful?

6. What is the basis of David's hope that God would hear his prayer and will have mercy on him?

7. What are your takeaways from Psalm 27?
