A CALL TO PRAY AND FAST

Rev. Dr. Harry L, White, Jr.—Pastor

January 5-25, 2025

Greetings in the name of our Lord!

As we prepare to enter 2025, I invite each of you to embark on a sacred journey of prayer and fasting—a powerful means to draw closer to God, experience His deliverance, receive answers to your prayers, and witness His supernatural intervention in your life. For 21 days, let us humble ourselves before the Lord, seeking His guidance, strength, and transformation.

In this holy season, I encourage you to seek God's direction on how He would have you fast, and what He desires you to fast for in this pivotal season of your life. May His wisdom reveal the specific areas where He is calling you to surrender and grow.

We will begin our season of prayer and fasting on Sunday, January 5, 2025, and conclude on Saturday, January 25, 2025.

To help guide us through this time of devotion, I have prepared a daily prayer and fasting devotional. As we enter into this sacred time, I offer the following suggestions to help us seek the Lord with a pure heart and a deep commitment. Let us unite in prayer, fasting, and faith, trusting that God will move mightily in our lives.

Options for Fasting and Prayer

Option 1: Fresh fruits, vegetables, and water only.

Option 2: Eat one healthy meal per day and eliminate all other meals.

Option 3: Eliminate sugar, soda, starches, and sweets from your diet for 21 days.

Option 4: Give up something you NEED to give up.

BECOMING STRONG IN SPIRIT

Prayer and Fasting Guide

21 DAYS OF PRAYER
& FASTING

Becoming spiritually strong should be one of our priorities in life.

Ephesians 4:13-16

There are various spiritual practices available to Christians that desire to develop spiritual strength.

Worship, meditation, study, fellowship, and solitude are among the spiritual practices that produce spiritual strength. Prayer and fasting are two God-ordained practices that cultivate spiritual maturity and develop spiritual strength.

As Christians, God calls us to seek Him through the spiritual disciplines of prayer and fasting (Matthew 6:5-18).

Jesus Himself set the example by praying and fasting for forty days and nights in the wilderness. Prayer is our sacred conversation with God—talking to a loving Father who listens and responds. Fasting, on the other hand, is the intentional act of abstaining from food for spiritual purposes, drawing us closer to God by denying ourselves and focusing on Him.

While prayer can be straightforward, combining it with fasting is often more challenging. The physical and mental demands of fasting can test us, yet the spiritual rewards of growing closer to God far outweigh the sacrifices. Through prayer and fasting, we encounter God's presence in profound ways, and we are transformed by His grace and power.

Types of Fasts

The normal fast is abstinence from all food except water.
After fasting forty days and forty nights, he was hungry.
(Matthew 4:2)

The absolute fast is to abstain from food and water.
For three days he was blind, and did not eat or drink anything. (Acts 9:9)

The partial fast is the restriction of our diet rather than complete abstinence.
“But Daniel resolved not to defile himself with the royal food and wine, and he asked the chief official for permission not to defile himself this way (Daniel 1:8).

THE POWER OF PRAYER AND FASTING

Spiritually, you will experience a more successful fast when you spend time each day in prayer and communion with God. Establish a time during the day for quiet time and meditation on the Word of God. Study His Word and seek His face.

THERE ARE SOME PEOPLE WHO SHOULD NO FAST

Pregnant women, women who have recently given birth, diabetics, individuals with heart conditions, and those suffering from gout, liver disease, kidney disease, cancer, bleeding ulcers, tumors, or blood disorders should seek alternatives. For these individuals, there is an option: participate in a "replacement fast." This involves abstaining from activities such as watching TV, playing computer games, browsing the internet, using social media like Facebook, talking on the phone, shopping, or any other habits you feel you need to give up.

Preparing for the Season of Prayer and Fasting

1. Ask God how God wants you to fast and pray.
2. Know that fasting is a spiritual discipline of sacrifice.
3. Do not expect everyone to get what you are doing.
4. Do not make fasting and prayer complicated.
5. Ask a small group of mature Christians to pray for your resolve and strength as you fast and pray.
6. Pray for the spiritual strength and a mature spiritual mentality during the season of prayer and fasting.
7. Do not eat a HUGE meal before you begin fasting and praying.

While You are Praying and Fasting

1. Stay in the Word of God.
2. Surround yourself with intercessors, encouragers and life-speakers.
3. Fast and pray with a partner or small group of like-minded Christians.
4. Expect spiritual attack, distraction and opposition.
5. Do not fast and pray to compete, impress others, force the hand of God or for any selfish reasons.
6. Be intentional about praying as you fast.
7. Take note (journal) about what God is doing in, with, through and around you.
8. If you make a mistake, ask for forgiveness and start again.
9. Keep focused on Almighty God.
10. Expect God to move in your life.
